An Introduction to Legal Aid

Wednesday 10 October 2018 6:30-8pm

Join us on Wednesday 10 October at 6:30pm at Bentham House (UCL) for our monthly London meeting – an introduction to legal aid!

Address: Bentham House, UCL, 4-8 ENDSLEIGH GARDENS, LONDON, WC1H 0EG

Nearest tube: Euston/Euston Square

Agenda:

1. Welcome and introduction

2. An introduction to legal aid

This meeting will be a great opportunity for students who are interested in pursuing a career in social justice law to develop their understanding of working in legal aid.

The meeting will include:

- An overview of the history of legal aid
- An overview of the current legal aid system
- Talks from a number of legal aid practitioners specialising in crime, family law and civil actions against the state
- An opportunity to meet lots of other junior and aspiring legal aid lawyers

3. AOB

4. Refreshments, with thanks UCL
